Introduction

There are references throughout this Code of Conduct (the Code) to 'I' and 'you' which means the member of staff of Caledonia Housing Association (Caledonia,) who has signed this Code. References to 'we', 'us' and 'our' mean Caledonia Housing Association as your employer and Cordale Housing Association as the subsidiary.

1. The organisation attaches the greatest importance to ensuring that high standards of behaviour are demonstrated by all of our people and in all of our activities.
2. This Code of Conduct sets out the standards of conduct required of you as a member of our staff. You are required to observe these standards in all the activities that you undertake in connection with your employment with us.
3. As a Registered Social Landlord (RSL), we are required to adopt and comply with an appropriate Code of Conduct¹. This Code is based on the Model Code of Conduct produced by the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations and Employers in Voluntary Housing (EVH) – which the Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) has confirmed fully complies with its Regulatory Standards.
4. You must make yourself familiar with the terms of this Code and act in accordance with its requirements at all times. You are required to sign the Code (in the 'Statement of the Acceptance' at the end) to confirm that you have read and understood the terms of the Code and you have a personal responsibility to uphold the requirements of this Code.
5. You must also ensure you are familiar with, and comply with, all of our policies.
6. If there are any aspects of this Code, or of any of the related policies, on which you are unclear, you must seek guidance from your Line Manager. Your Line Manager, or the People Team will also be able to give guidance where you are unsure how the Code or related policies apply in a particular situation.

Who the Code applies to

8. This Code of Conduct applies to everyone who works for us whether employed directly or otherwise.

9. A copy of this Code will be given to every person that it applies to.

How the Code is structured

10. The Code is based on the Nolan Principles on Standards in Public Life² that are recognised as defining good conduct for those who work for the public using public money.
11. We have defined three groups of principles as the basis for the Code:
 - A Honesty and Integrity
 - B Openness and Accountability
 - C Selflessness, Objectivity, Leadership
12. Each of the three sections begins with a statement of principle. This is followed by a number of provisions which set out the requirements of the Code in more detail.

The Code is not exhaustive and it should be remembered that all staff members of RSLs are responsible for ensuring that their conduct at all times meets the high standards that the RSL sector is recognised for upholding. As well as observing the detail of the Code, you should apply its intention and spirit to all situations in employment.

You are required to sign the Statement of Acceptance at the conclusion of this Code on page 13 which also outlines the implications for any breach of the Code.

If I am in doubt as to the legal and regulatory requirements that are relevant to my role, I will seek guidance from my Line Manager.

C.4 I will work at all times in accordance with our policies and procedures and I will not allow my own personal or political opinions to affect the way in which I carry out my duties. This does not impinge on my right to be an active citizen or, for example, to be an active trade unionist.

C.5 I will take direction from my Line Manager, other senior managers and the governing bodies and exercise responsibly any authority that comes with my role as a staff member.
